11.06 Plural or Masculine Terms May Apply

Wherever the singular, masculine, or feminine is used in this Agreement it shall be considered as if the plural, feminine or masculine has been used where the context of the party or parties hereto so require.

ARTICLE 12 SENIORITY

12.01 Seniority Defined

Seniority is the length of service with the Employer within the bargaining unit, and shall operate on a bargaining-unit-wide basis. When a formerly non-Union branch becomes unionized, affected staff shall be given seniority that recognizes one-half (.5) their length of service. In the case of an Employee already a Union member, the Employee's seniority shall be the greater of one-half (.5) their length of service, or seniority already accumulated.

12.02 Probation and Seniority For New Permanent Employees

New permanent Full Time Employees shall be considered to be probationary Employees until they have been continuously employed for three (3) months. Permanent, Part Time Employees shall be considered to be Probationary Employees until they have been continuously employed for six (6) months. During such probationary period they shall not be entitled to seniority and may be discharged without recourse to Article 10 of this Agreement. At the end of such probationary period, an Employee shall be entered on the seniority list as of their original date of employment.

12.03 Probation and Seniority For Auxiliary Employees

Auxiliary Employees shall be considered to be probationary Employees until they have worked a total of nine hundred and ten (910) hours, and during such probationary period they shall not be entitled to seniority and may be discharged without recourse to Article 10 of this Agreement. At the end of such probationary period, an Employee shall be entered on the Auxiliary seniority list and credited with the accumulated hours worked. Auxiliary Employees shall continue to accumulate seniority on an hourly basis until such time as they post into a permanent position. Accumulated seniority shall be carried forward and from then on seniority shall accrue yearly.

12.04 Probation and Seniority For Pages

Page Employees shall be considered to be probationary Employees until they have been continuously employed for six (6) months and during such probationary period they shall not be entitled to seniority and may be discharged without recourse to Article 10 of this Agreement.

Upon completion of the probationary period, Pages will be moved to a Permanent Page seniority list with the hours accrued during probation. From then on, the Employee will accumulate seniority as per List 1. Pages can exercise seniority only for applying for other page positions.

12.05 Seniority List

The Employer shall maintain seniority lists showing the seniority of each Employee. Separate lists will be maintained for Permanent Employees, Auxiliary Employees and Pages.

- a) List 1 - Regular Seniority List

Definition: Any Employee with permanent position(s)

b) List 2 - Auxiliary Seniority List

Definition: Employees with no permanent position(s) accumulating hours of seniority. The definition of one (1) year for the purpose of this Article is one thousand eight hundred twenty (1820) hours.

Note: A new Auxiliary Employee will not show on any of the above lists until they pass their six (6) months' probation. Accumulated hours during probation will be carried to the Auxiliary List once probation is passed.

c) List 3 - Page Seniority List

12.06

Losing Seniority Rights

If an Employee is absent from work because of sickness, accident, layoff, or leave of absence approved by the Employer, they shall not lose seniority rights.

An Employee shall be terminated and lose their seniority in the event:

- a) they are discharged for proper cause and are not reinstated.
- b) they resign.
- c) they are absent from work in excess of five (5) working days without notifying the Employer unless such notice was not reasonably possible.
- d) after a layoff, they fail to return to work within seven (7) calendar days, after being notified by registered mail to do so, unless through sickness or other just cause. It shall be the responsibility of the Employee to keep the Employer informed of their current address.
- e) they are laid off and not re-employed within twelve (12) months after layoff.
- f) their term of employment ends.
- g) An Auxiliary Employee is expected to be available to cover the absences of permanent Employees. An Auxiliary Employee that has not accepted an offered shift in six (6) months will have their employment terminated. An Auxiliary Employee with seniority shall have access to the grievance procedure.

At the point of hire, auxiliary Employees will indicate their availability to the Employer. In order to significantly change availability, the Employee must apply to see if the revised availability is acceptable to the Employer. If it is not, the auxiliary Employee must decide whether to maintain the agreed upon availability or terminate the employment relationship.

ARTICLE 13 LAYOFF AND RECALL

13.01 Layoff and Recall Procedures

- a) Layoff shall include a reduction in an Employee's regularly scheduled hours of work. Layoff shall not include termination or reduction of hours of on-call or term Employees not on the seniority list. Layoff may result from a partial or total branch or department closure.

- b) Therefore, in the event of a lay-off, Employees shall be laid off in the reverse order of their seniority. Employees shall be re-called in the order of their seniority provided they are qualified to do the work as outlined in the minimum requirements of the job description.

13.02 Role of Seniority in Layoffs

Both parties recognize that job security should increase in proportion to length of service. Therefore in the event of a layoff, the following principles of seniority shall be maintained:

- a) where the branch or department continues to operate thirty-five (35) or more hours per week, full time Employees will not be reduced to part time status as a group. On the basis of operational needs, work reduction may be applied to individual full time or part time Employees;
- b) an Employee who is laid off shall be entitled to bump downward or laterally into more than one (1) part time position, provided that:
